Title of the Practice

Vivekavani Lecture Series by Swamy Vivekananda Study Centre

Objectives of the Practice

Vivekavani lectures are aimed to help to inculcate values in life and to understand Swamy Vivekananda's concept of Universal personality.

The Context

The youth of the day need transforming philosophies and initiatives encapsulated with societal harmony to contribute to the society through a pluralistic approach from the works of Swami Vivekananda.

The Practice

Lectures were delivered by eminent speakers on 12th of every month both in online and offline mode. The role of youth in nation building, facing challenges in Vivekananda way, enlightened citizenship, Swamy Vivekananda's concept of Universal personality, role of service in nation building, responsible freedom, etc. were discussed with a sole intension of enabling the youth to take the nation to newer heights.

Evidence of Success

The lectures were arranged in association with the Ramakrishna Math Mangalore. The details of the programs are available at both the places in digital form. The lectures were so effective that the number of online attendees increased every time.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

The lectures were arranged in the evenings and it was difficult to reach the interested students at remote areas due to poor network connectivity.
